NEW Class • NEW Topic
(not included in our Fall 2016 Class Schedule!)

America’s Musical Landscape
Instructor: Dr. Guy Whatley
3 sessions: Wednesdays, Sept. 21, 28, Oct. 5
1:00 – 2:30 p.m.
ASU West campus
4701 W. Thunderbird Rd., Phoenix, AZ 85069

Join Dr. Whatley as he presents an historical survey that addresses the broad range of music in the United States from early periods to the present day. We will look at the music of the First Nation, the Pilgrims, Folk Music, Religious and Secular Music, Music of the Civil War, African American traditions of music, Latino traditions of music, Concert Music, Pop and Country and Jazz, Musical Theater, and finally Film Music.

Instructor: Guy Whatley, DMA, received a doctorate in music from ASU and is an American organist and harpsichordist. He studied music at the universities of Cambridge, Oxford, and Bristol and continued studying the organ in Stuttgart, Lyons, and throughout Europe. Dr. Whatley, along with trumpeter Jean-Christophe Dobrzelewski, founded the ensemble Triptyque, taking their performances across Europe and North America. Currently, he is the director of music and the organist for Camelback Bible Church.

ONLY $30 for current OLLI at ASU members already registered for fall!
New members are always welcome.

Register NOW online https://lifelonglearning.asu.edu/registration or call 602.543.6440.