

Back to School Lunch & Learn at Maravilla

Join us at Maravilla Scottsdale for a “back to school” luncheon to celebrate lifelong learning and the start of the Osher Fall Semester. Learn more about the fall courses being offered at Maravilla and meet Richard Knopf, Ph.D., the director of Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at ASU. Rob Spindler, the head of Arizona State University’s Department of Archives and Special Collections, will present an illustrated review of how ASU has advanced the local economy and state in numerous ways. After his lecture, “Measuring Impact: 128 Years of Arizona State University,” guests will also enjoy a complimentary luncheon in Maravilla’s Ironwood Grill.
